

04/11/2015

Almarai Company announces power outages in some of its manufacturing facilities in Al Kharj

Almarai Company announces power outages in some of its manufacturing facilities in Al Kharj on Tuesday 3rd November 2015, Almarai is currently addressing the power failure at Al-Kharj in collaboration with the related parties. The company is keen on resolving the problem at the soonest and has confirmed that all employees, properties and products are unharmed despite the outage.

Almarai is currently undertaking the necessary measures to address the possible shortage in product supply.

No significant impact on the bottom line is expected.